"Always, forever. Family above all." — Elijah

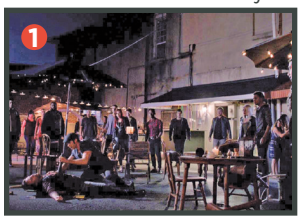

A spin-off from The Vampire Diaries and set in New Orleans, The Originals centers on the Mikaelson siblings, otherwise known as the world's original vampires: Klaus (Joseph Morgan), Elijah (Daniel Gillies), and Rebekah (Claire Holt). Now Klaus must take down his protege, Marcel (Charles Michael Davis), who is now in charge of New Orleans, in order to re-take his city, as he originally built New Orleans. Klaus departed from the city after being chased down by his father Mikael, while it was being constructed and Marcel took charge. As Klaus has returned after many years, his ego has provoked him to become the king of the city. "Every King needs an heir" says Klaus, accepting the unborn child. The child is a first to be born to a hybrid (part vampire, part werewolf) and a werewolf (Hayley).

Season 1: The Cauldron is often the area of fights between vampires and witches, as when Marcel sent Diego and other vampires to teach a lesson to the witches creating a mess by overturning tables and breaking merchandise in shops. In "Tangled Up In Blue," it was during one of these raids that Thierry killed one of the vampires who had assaulted his girlfriend, the witch Katie, owner of the Jardin Gris Voodoo Shop.

The Cauldron is also the place where Céleste and her acolytes left the corpses of some vampire victims of Sacrificial Magic.

Season 4: In "Gather Up the Killers," Marcel asked Vincent Griffith to keep witches at The Cauldron to avoid unpleasant encounters with European vampires like Alistair Duquesne, who had just arrived in town to witness Niklaus Mikaelson's defeat at the hands of Marcel. Vincent accepted his request as long as the vampires had not caused problems to the witches.
