

12 FREE THINGS TO DO IN CONYERS

1. Make your first stop the Conyers Welcome Center and explore the Conyers Historic Train Depot (1891).
2. If you're a fan of history, art, and/or film, take one (or all) of our fascinating self-guided tours in Conyers. Brochures are available at the Conyers Welcome Center, download from our website, or free mobile app Guide to Conyers.
3. From the Conyers Welcome Center, walk across the street to view The Milstead 104 "Dinky" Steam Locomotive. It is a 1905 Rogers Steam Locomotive, and only one of three left in the world.
4. Wander the quaint Lewis Vaughn Botanical Garden in the heart of Olde Town and view plants and flowers of the Georgia Piedmont region. Entrance on Commercial Street.
5. Enjoy the 1,400-acre Georgia International Horse Park, a legacy of the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games, offering year-round events. Many events are free to the public!
6. Experience power pedaling over nine miles of Olympic designed mountain bike trails at the Georgia International Horse Park. If you prefer horse riding, bring your favorite equine as there's also over 15 scenic miles of horse riding trails.
7. Stroll the 173-acre Big Haynes Creek Nature Center trails at the Georgia International Horse Park. With a platform to view wildlife habitat over the protected wetlands, a picnic area, interpretive signage, and a boat launch for kayaks or canoes, you'll enjoy the tranquility found there.
8. Seek the peaceful serenity of the Rockdale County Master Gardeners Memorial Aboretum, located at the Georgia International Horse Park.
9. In an outdoor park setting, walk with heroes at the Georgia Veterans War Memorial/Walk of Heroes, remembering the sacrifices made during the twentieth century by veterans on a battlefield and by their families on the homefront.
10. Visit the iconic Haralson Mill Covered Bridge, one of only 15 covered bridges in Georgia. Parking and trails nearby.
11. Take a stroll, jog, or bike ride through some of Conyers and Rockdale County's most scenic PATH Trails. With over 40 miles to cover, there are two trails to choose from: The Olde Town Conyers Trail, and the Arabia Mountain PATH Trail.
12. Renew your spirit with a stop at Georgia's only Trappist community Monastery of the Holy Spirit, a 2,300-acre home to Cistercian monks for over 75 years. You'll admire the beauty of Bonsai specimens, monk-made and designed stained glass, architecture, and interactive heritage museum.